The Daily Quote

"I want to assure all of you that the Recovery Act funding provided for transportation infrastructure projects is 'out the door' and making a difference. Of the $48.1 billion provided in the Act to support transportation improvement projects, nearly $38 billion of these funds has been obligated on more than 14,800 highway, transit, aviation and shipyard projects in every State of the Union, the District of Columbia, and several of the U.S. territories."

- Ray LaHood, Secretary of Transportation and Former Republican Congressman from Illinois, 7/27/2010
