

PAYGO EVENT SUGGESTIONS

- Host a Fiscal Wake-Up Tour Event:

The Fiscal Wake-Up Tour is a joint public engagement initiative by The Concord Coalition, the Budgeting for National Priorities Project at the Brookings Institution, the Heritage Foundation, and the Honorable David M. Walker, President and CEO of The Peter G. Peterson Foundation.

Beginning in September of 2005, the Tour has visited more than 40 cities in all regions of the country explaining in plain terms why budget analysts of diverse perspectives are increasingly alarmed by the nation's daunting long-term fiscal outlook.

For more about the Fiscal Wake-Up Tour, click here.

Click here to see video and presentations from the Tour.

To schedule an event in your district, contact the Concord Coalition at 703-894-6222.

- Speak to a local college or university:

Click here to see the great press coverage Rep. Tom Perriello received after a PAYGO event at the University of Virginia.

In UVa visit, Democrats call deficit reckless

U.S. Rep. Tom Perriello and House Majority Leader Steny H. Hoyer visited the University of Virginia on Monday to draw attention to the federal deficit of more than $1 trillion that today's college students will inherit one day.

http://www.dailyprogress.com/cdp/news/local/article/in_uva_visit_democrats_call_deficit_reckless/41837/

Addressing college students and the local community is an opportunity to discuss how fiscal responsibility affects Young Americans and why it's an important issue for them.

- Include PAYGO/fiscal responsibility as a topic at town hall events.
- Discuss PAYGO at economic recovery events; after taking needed action to strengthen our economy after years of reckless Republican policies, this is a needed step to restore fiscal responsibility.
- Write an op-ed for your local paper on the importance of PAYGO:

Click here for a sample op-ed distributed earlier this month by the Majority Leader's Office.