The Daily Quote

“Appropriations Chairman Hal Rogers (R-Ky.) said Tuesday he opposes a key part of the legislative strategy put forward by his budget committee counterpart, Chairman Tom Price (R-Ga.), to advance a fiscal blueprint next year... It's a new wrinkle in the House GOP's struggle to craft a budget plan that will win the necessary support from the Freedom Caucus, which has several members on the Budget committee and is becoming increasingly vocal... It's also the first budgeting season under [House] Speaker Paul Ryan [R-WI], a former budget committee chairman who has made it a personal priority to 'restore regular order.' With new opposition from the House Appropriations Committee, the GOP's chances of approving a joint budget blueprint are again shrinking.”
